

3 Things I Know

words & music by Sven-Erik Seaholm

Sometimes you follow your heart
Sometimes you're chasing a spark
Other times, you're following some other part
But it all looks the same in the dark
Yes, it all looks the same in the dark

We all know that day will arrive
When the end presses in like a knife
And our spirit goes barreling into the sky
But it's never a good day to die
No, it's never a good day to die

All my life
I've spent waiting here
All my days
I've been circling...circling

Love is the singular truth
Love is a thing we can do
No religion nor philosophy
Discipline or rule
Only love is the singular truth
Love is a thing we can do

Love is the one thing that's true
