

Envy In A Minor

words & music by Sven-Erik Seaholm

I want what he has
I want what he has
Can I get what he's got?
Don't think it's a whole lot to ask
Can I have what he has?

It's not an obsession
No, it's not an obsession
But under your table
Be careful the devil you find

Lay me down within your warm design
Let our shadows intertwine
Press your heart next to mine

I want your attention
No, I need your attention
I just want what he's got
Is it really a whole lot to ask?
Can I have what he has?

I want what he has
I want what he has
