

FLICKER & FADE

words & music by Sven-Erik Seaholm

Stars will fall
Flicker & fade
Love just flies away

You give love to get love
Surrender it all to your art
But what lies within is unknown
Like the rest of your heart

Shiver and shudder
Pretending there's no one around
Like rain in the gutter
The language is washing you down, down, down

Stars will fall
Flicker & fade
Love just flies away

Bridges and grudges
The heed to another one's call
Kisses and wishes
The lyrical bend to it all

Like rain from the sky
Pulling you down, down, down

Stars will fall
Flicker & fade
Love just flies away

Love just flies away

Away...
Away...
Away...
