

Gandhi Song

Sometimes it feels like I've every hug that I've given
Wasn't hard enough
Sometimes it seems like the best I had Just wasn't good enough

Sometimes seems like all the time...

Maybe it's only the time of year
Makes us feel it there
Maybe too much of a good, good thing
Spilled over everywhere

Maybe you know more than me
There's so much more than what we see

Remember the rain
Remember the sunshine
Remember roses wilting in your crystal vase
Heads in the clouds
Flying so high
Maybe smoke and mirrors
Were all it ever was

Can love disappear into thin air?
Where does it go?
One more rabbit out of my hat
How did he do that?

I think you know more than me
There's so much more to what we see

(Chorus)

Watching the lights all flicker out
Under a starry sky
Spinning all around
We go down

(Chorus)

Maybe smoke & mirrors
Smoke & mirrors...
Under a starry sky, we go down...
