

IT'S COMING BACK

words by Sven-Erik Seaholm

music by Sven-Erik Seaholm & Dylan James Ankney

I'll bet you've got wings
Just like an angel
Your smile is like a halo
When it shines
I'll never turn my back on you
You'd stab me in it every time

But it's coming back
It's coming back to you
It's all coming back
Every one of the things you do

Limo back seat
You're so continental
Put your confidential
On display
If only Dom or Cristal could do
Anything to kill the pain

(Chorus)

You held me down
And I'm not the only one
Standing on those heads
For a better view
Now, it's all coming back to you

(Chorus)
