

LET IT ALL FALL DOWN

words & music by: Sven-Erik Seaholm

I'm not angry with you now
I'm just letting you know how it is
And I won't even think twice

I was your steadfastest friend to the end
Now I can't even talk nice

Let it all fall down
Let the threads come undone
Let it all fall down
Unravel it

I'm not looking at you now
Doesn't mean that you're not on my mind
But you took things for granted
And that turned me to stone

Let it all fall down
Let the threads come undone
Let it all fall down
Unravel it

Emails and eloquence
Offered in self defense
Cactus and consequence
Look at the love you've spent
Searching for the Judas kiss
When that taste was on your lips

Let it all fall down
Let the threads come undone
Let it all fall down, down, down...

I'm just letting you know how it is
