

THE REAL SOLUTION

words by Sven-Erik Seaholm

music by Sven-Erik Seaholm & Drew Andrews

When they go through the dog-eared pages
Of this moment in time
What kind of clues through the ages
Will be left there to find?

Do you know what I mean?

I get the feeling that things need to rearrange
Why don't we make that change?

Send a message to everybody
It's beginning today
It's up to you and to me
It always was anyway

Do you know what I mean?

I get the feeling that things need some working out
Why don't we scream and shout?

Do you or don't you?
Are you or aren't you part of the real solution?
Take a look and see that it's a part of yourself
Pull the sense out of this confusion
Don't leave it all to somebody else

Do you know what I mean?
Yeah, you know what I mean

I get the feeling there is nothing we can't do

(Chorus)

Are you a part of the real solution?
Take a look and see that it's a part of yourself
