

TRICKLE DOWN (The Reaganomics Of Love)

words & music by Sven-Erik Seaholm

Between the first and second bites
I found time to think about us
You look so beautiful tonight
But we've got things to discuss
And you know what I'm talkin' 'bout
You know

Don't I treat you with respect?
Didn't I build my world around you?
Tell me, what should I expect?
Maybe I'm about to

Love may trickle down to ya
When you make that sacrifice
Love may trickle down to ya
And you know what I'm talkin' 'bout
You know

Tell me, what should I deserve?
Well baby, maybe I'm about to

Love may trickle down to ya
When you hold my heart up high
Love may trickle down to ya
And you know what I'm talkin' 'bout
Yeah

Love may trickle down to ya
When you let your tears run dry
Love may trickle down to ya
And you know what I'm talkin' 'bout
Know what I'm talkin' 'bout
Know what I'm talkin' 'bout
Know what I'm talkin' 'bout
You know what I'm talkin' about

You know
Yeah, you know
You know
