

TURN AWAY

words & music by Sven-Erik Seaholm

Turn away
I know it's nothing
But it's always something
Not quite the same thing
Turn away

Look away
Stare at the ceiling
I know you're reeling
But bottle your feelings
And look away

Cause it's a long, long way to go
To reach down that deep
You're losing control
And you need sleep

Walk away
Into the sunset
The painting is still wet
We'll hang, but not yet
Just walk away

Whitewater in your veins
Feel it crash against your heart
Turning to rain
Let the healing start

Turn away
Remember the moment
It's yours and you own it
But now you've outgrown it
Turn away