

Waiting for You (Delcaration)

words & music by Sven-Erik Seaholm

My friends, my friends
I've been waiting for you to come down
What took you so long?
Did you take a wrong turn now?

Brothers, sisters
There's a reason I call you that
So keep it with you
Don't carry it under your hat

And when the night is black
And it's all that you can see
You have my solemn guarantee
You can always count on me

So let's begin
To pass around the love we hold in Just open your heart
And take it apart again

And when the night is cold
And the sun feels years away
Hold out your hand, it'll be okay
You can always count on me
You can always count on me
